W A I P A R A

2016 Rosé

TASTING NOTES

Superbly aromatic and textured wine. One of the few examples in NZ made from Syrah. Barrel fermented with natural yeasts and aged on lees, this dry wine is beautifully balanced and food friendly.

Michael Coopers Guide to Wine 2015
– 4.5 STARS, BEST BUY ROSÉ

“The delicious 2014 vintage was made from Syrah, estate grown in Waipara and fermented with indigenous yeasts in tanks. An inviting, bright, pale pink wine, it is attractively scented, mouthfilling and vibrantly fruity, with strawberry, spice and watermelon flavours, showing excellent depth and freshness, and basically a dry (4g/L of residual sugar) finish. Full of personality.”

Raymond Chan Wine Reviews – 4 STARS
