The Rapture

Don't let your eyes deceive you, this ain't no toasty roasty chocolaty slow sipping porter or stout – this is an IPA

But this brother is from another muvva. The traditional IPA malt bill has been darkened up with a little help from Carafa; a dehusked, less harsh and less bitter specialty malt.

Fist fulls of American hops – Chinook, Citra, Zythos, Simcoe and Amarillo are all finished off with a touch of oily, hopbacked NZ Cascade whole cone hops.

More-ish with layer upon layer of flavours this dark beauty is sure to make the sinner out of even the most devout of us.
