Feeling a little daring?

Pocket yourself a de-Can-ter of Sauvignon Blanc with notes of portability and a bouquet of pure confidence. Probably the "best" Sauvignon Blanc in a can ever.

The grapes for The Charlatan were sourced from premium vineyards through-out the Marlborough region of New Zealand. Marlborough is widely considered by wine critics to be the best place to produce Sauvignon Blanc and The Charlatan is no exception.

Reasons to go can and enjoy The Charlatan: chill down faster, reduce oxidization, super portable, less packaging and easily recyclable.
